

Court Duty Desk

Who can help me if I am going to court?

The Court Duty Scheme was introduced in April 2009, to provide help, advice and assistance to homeowners in or before a court hearing. Everyone is eligible for support from a free court desk advisor. This service is available from anyone attending a county court repossession hearing in England.